

Stag & Hens.....

Adrenalin style activities are fast becoming an essential ingredient to the modern Stag & Hen party. Long gone are the days of the standard night on the town. These days people want a unique experience, to share with friends and family and adrenalin activities provide a fantastic way for everyone to enjoy themselves whilst allowing you to let off some pre-marital steam!

Our success is due to a combination of professionalism, attention to detail and the high standard of our activities which guarantee clients leave with great memories from a unique and above all, fun experience.

Catton Hall, hosted over 300 stag & hen events in 2006. Groups came from all over the UK, impressed by our location to the major party cities of Manchester, Liverpool and Chester. We were also chosen from national competition to host the GMTV wedding of the year 2004 Stag Party, featured on GMTV!

Activities to choose from include Clay Shooting, Quad Biking, Off road 4X4, Paintball Games, Archery & Air Rifling. All full of action and excitement!

Clay Shooting is our most popular event for stags and works really well along side the Quads.

We have numerous targets and our instructors ensure you achieve the best from the experience. The kick-back from the gun, isn't as bad as you might think and is suitable for all levels...our instructors are excellent and will ensure you're hitting a range of targets within minutes.

Paintball Games are popular with both Hen & Stags... providing an excellent way for the group to really get to know one another prior to the big day. It's all about teamwork....family v's friends?

Quad Biking, offers the ultimate challenge with three options, Quad Racing, Quad Trekking and the awesome Quad Challenge:- for all those quad bike junkies who really can't get enough of these fantastic off road vehicles!!

The tracks and trials feature, woodland terrain, streams, steep hills, chicanes, tight bends, open fields and mud banks! ...an absolute thrill for both Stags & Hens or Hags (Stag & Hens combined challenges)

So if your looking for a day to remembergive us for great deals.....
